International programmes 2021-2022

What will be your impact on the world of tomorrow? At CHE we offer short programmes to expand your professional vocation and implement your beliefs in your field of profession.

Welcome to Ede!

CHE is a compact University of Applied Sciences with 5000 students. We offer education of the highest quality, national tests point out yearly. Committed to the principle of biblically responsible and excellent learning, CHE offers a variety of distinctively Christian, professional programmes. We would love to welcome you at our university.

International Programmes 2021-2022

CHE offers six short programmes in several professional fields. In these programmes you will study alongside Dutch students and get involved with many other cultures. The courses are conducted in English and will all start in September 2021. You can follow one course and finish your studies in November, or choose 2 consecutive courses and stay with us until January 2022. We are planning to offer these programmes on campus in 2021. Some programmes will be open for online participation from your own location as well.
