This summer ...

... the international Summer School on "Health Care Systems – Global perspectives on the challenges of healthcare and healthcare systems" will be hosted by the Evangelische Hochschule Berlin. The virtual kick-off meeting will take place on June 12, 1pm (CEST). The physical meeting will take place from 28.08.23 – 08.09.23 on the campus of EHB.

We expect many international guests, students as well as lecturers, from European and non-European countries, including Malaysia, Taiwan, Ghana, France and the Netherlands.

In exciting lectures, transdisciplinary workshops and open discussion rounds, we want to initiate an exchange about the prevailing approaches to action in the various participating countries with regard to local health systems and comparatively work out the respective conflicts and potentials. At the end of the two-week event, the goal is to jointly develop solutions and impulses for the global problems in health care.

Your benefit

By participating in the event and making an oral contribution in the form of a short (group) presentation, you can receive 4 ECTS credits and at the same time benefit from the international and transdisciplinary exchange, the exciting excursions to various institutions of the Berlin health care system as well as the optional participation in the sight-seeing program.
